2. Discussion

[redacted] who has been a member of the Analysis Division of this Office since July 1951 finds it necessary to leave CIA full-time employment. This Office believes that it would be to the Agency's advantage to retain [redacted] on a consultant basis for the time required for him to provide assistance in completing a current ORR project on current and potential munitions producing capabilities of the USSR with which he was concerned both within ORR and while on detail to WSEG. [redacted] developed the methodology employed and is thoroughly familiar with the data.
